Stingers to host women's rugby semifinal

With a 77-0 victory over the Sherbrooke Vert et Or on Monday, the Concordia women's rugby team clinched second place in the QSSF standings. The Stingers finish the regular season with a 6-2 win-loss record. Concordia will host the Ottawa Gee-Gees in the conference semifinal Sunday at noon. The winner advances to the QSSF championship which will be played Sunday, Oct. 27. The QSSF champion advances to the Canadian Interuniversity Sport championships hosted by University of Toronto on its Scarborough campus Oct. 31-Nov. 3.

Men's teams dominate tournament play

Both the Concordia men's basketball team and the men's hockey team won tournaments last weekend.

The cagers won their own 35th annual Concordia-Nike Tournament with an impressive 90-78 win over the Lakehead Thunderwolves on Saturday. The Stingers defeated the Wilfrid Laurier Golden Hawks 62-53 in the preliminaries.

Point guard Philippe Langlois was a leader in the competition, dominating the boards in his own end. He was named the tournament MVP. Patrick Perrotte was also a key contributor with 16 points versus Laurier and 25 points in the championship game. Concordia travels to Waterloo, Ont., this weekend for the Wilfrid Laurier Challenge Tournament.

The hockey team won the McGill Invitational Tournament on the weekend with a 5-3 victory over the York Yeomen in the first round and a 4-2 win over the host McGill Redmen in the championship.

Goaltender Phil Ozga was named to the tournament all-star team for his performance. He stopped 20 of 23 shots versus York and 26 of 28 shots against McGill. Defenceman Phil Parent and forward Patrice Roy were also all-stars. Roy had two goals and two assists in the competition, while Parent collected two goals and one assist.

The Stingers travel to Trois-Rivières for their season-opener versus the UQTR Patriotes on Friday at 8 p.m.

Concordia football upsets No. 3-ranked Laval

The Concordia Stingers football team posted its biggest win of the season with a 28-25 victory over the No. 3-ranked Laval Rouge et Or before 2,950 fans at Concordia Stadium on Saturday.

Kicker Simon Rodgers connected on four field goals, including a game-winner - an eight-yard chip shot - with 52 seconds left in the match. He was also good from 35, 32, and 23 yards out. Also, instrumental on offence was wide receiver Alexis Charpentier who caught seven passes for 87 yards and one touchdown. Quarterback Jon Bond completed 18 of 38 passes for 250 yards and one touchdown. Defensively, linebacker Mickey Donovan was exceptional. He collected 16 tackles, including 10 solos and two for losses. Patrick Donovan had nine tackles. The top defensive player on Laval had just six tackles. The Stingers travel to Halifax to play the Saint Mary's Huskies on Saturday, Oct. 19. The Huskies are the defending Vanier Cup champions. They are currently ranked No. 6 by the CIS.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Jerusha Osborne of the women's soccer team and Philippe Langlois of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Oct. 14.

Osborne, a second-year forward, collected three goals in two important games last week. She scored the game-winner in Concordia's 2-1 victory over the Bishop's Gaiters on Saturday. She also had two goals in the Stingers' 3-1 win over the Université de Montreal Carabins on Monday. A native of LaSalle, Que., Osborne is a political science major.

Langlois was named the MVP of the 35th annual Concordia Nike Tournament for his efforts in leading the Stingers to the championship. In a 62-53 victory over the Wilfrid Laurier Goldenhawks, he collected nine rebounds, 10 assists, six points and a steal. In the championship game, a 90-78 win over the Lakehead Thunderwolves, he scored 14 points, nine assists, four steals and four rebounds. Langlois is a sociology major from Varennes, Que.
